- Coco Velten: Fighting against exclusion while experimenting with new ways of collective living, the Coco Velten project accommodates nearly 80 people in social residences, and provides workspaces to nearly 40 associations, artists, craftsmen, social entrepreneurs and small businesses. Coco Velten is also open to the public, connected to its neighbors, offering a Canteen and various social, economic and cultural meeting spaces. More on our website
 - SOS MEDITERRANEE – Together, let's save lives at sea: Since 2014, more than 20,000 men, women and children have drowned in the Mediterranean Sea in an attempt to cross it in makeshift boats. SOS MEDITERRANEE is a civilian European association of citizens engaged to help those who risk their lives at sea to escape an unbearable situation. Since the beginning of its operations in February 2016, more than 35,000 people have been rescued by the Aquarius and then by the Ocean Viking, a quarter of whom were under 18.
 - La Dar – Noailles: La Dar is a self-organised social center, a politically and financially autonomous space, open to the neighborhood, its inhabitants, as well as social movements. The collective of activists rents a place in an area in a process of gentrification (Noailles). Many activities are developed (boxing, canteen, day care for refugees, library, concerts, meeting place for social movements, etc.). It is a political and cultural place, which promotes emancipation and solidarity for all. The site visits will start by a walk around the neighborhood.
