

Multitudes Foundation supports political changemakers who are building more inclusive, hopeful and human politics in Europe.

We provide them with financial resources, strategic advice, practical support and a community of practice to accelerate their mission of reimagining politics

Inspiration from organising practices

Community organising

Center those directly affected by the issues

People before project!

Building collective power to win

Shared and structured responsibilities

Multitudes approach

Centering people underrepresented in politics

Facilitate political changemakers connection

Support collective strategic approaches

Facilitate coalition building and power sharing

Theory of Change

If we provide resources and support collaboration between people working to reimagine politics, centering those underrepresented in the field, they will develop collective responses to build inclusive, hopeful, and human politics.

Conditions for change

RESOURCES

Allow political changemakers to build sustainable organisations

COMMUNITY

Give political changemakers a place to build trust to unlock collaboration and collective power building

LEARNING:

Support learning to increase collective ability to craft effective strategies to reimagine politics

Connecting to ground work

We work with local connectors from seven countries across Europe.

- Identify and scout promising initiatives
- Connect to actors on the ground
- Ensure we understand local context
